

RECRUITMENT ANNOUNCEMENT

Surry County Emergency Medical Services is accepting applications for temporary part-time EMT-Intermediates and EMT-Paramedics. Employees serving in these positions perform advanced pre-hospital medical care, serve as part of a two-member ambulance crew and are responsible for medical care administered to patients. The current annual call volume is approximately 26,000. The Emergency Medical Services operates 8 ALS ambulances 24 hours each day from four satellite stations throughout a 538 square mile area and has a 24/72 work schedule.

Job requirements: The position requires a high school diploma or GED and the completion of all required courses for NC EMT-Paramedic credential, ACLS, PALS and CPR. Two years' experience as an EMT-P is desirable. The successful applicant must be insurable under the County's automobile insurance at regular rates and able to comply with established dress codes. Job offer will be contingent upon a negative drug test and successful background check.

Surry County Emergency Services is also accepting applications for temporary part-time positions of EMT, EMT-Intermediates and EMT-Paramedics to work for the Surry County BLS/Convalescent Service. Work hours will be approximately 24 per week working 12-hour daytime shifts. An employee in these positions will provide care during the transportation of the sick and injured at the basic life support level. The employees assist in transportation to routine doctor office visits, rehabilitation visits to appropriate facilities, and transfers to area hospitals for long term care. These employees are supervised directly by the on-duty EMS Supervisor and indirectly by the Emergency Services Director. All decisions and directions will be coordinated with the administrative officers within Emergency Services.

Personnel training requirements: All training standards will be reviewed and monitored by the Training Division of Emergency Services. Certified personnel will be responsible for maintaining certifications to qualify as an employee with the Service. Part-time staff will be allowed to train within courses and classes provided by the training staff and must provide proper documentation of current certification levels. The successful applicant must be insurable under the County's automobile insurance at regular rates and able to comply with established dress codes. Job offer will be contingent upon a negative drug test and successful background check.
